Contemporary Uruguayan Poetry Ronald Haladyna, 2010 The editor of this anthology addresses this literary omission by identifying seventeen Uruguayans deserving of recognition Jorge Arbeleche Nancy Bacelo Washington Benavides Mario Benedetti Amanda Berenguer Luis Bravo Selva Casal Rafael Courtoisie Marosa Di Giorgio Enrique Fierro Alfredo Fressia Saul Ibargoyen Circe Maia Jorge Meretta Eduardo Milan Alvaro Miranda and Salvador Puig The selection of these poets is based on extensive research and personal taste but also because they have a recognized sustained record of published books of poetry especially during the 1990s they have been favorably acknowledged for their work by peers and critics through reviews and interviews in local news media they have received recognition through national or international literary awards and for the most part they are still active as poets in the new millennium Furthermore they comprise a representative cross section of diverse generations perspectives themes and poetics extant in today's poetry in Uruguay Each of the poets is represented by a selection of original poems in Spanish to demonstrate the diversity of their expression and English translations to render them meaningful for both English and Spanish reading publics The extensive bibliographies of primary and secondary sources of each poet is unprecedented hopefully it will serve as a guide to encourage research on this neglected area of Spanish American literature There is currently no canon of contemporary Uruguayan poets but this project is intended to provide a meaningful step toward opening a discussion of such a canon BOOK JACKET Uruguayan Short Stories by Mario Benedetti in Translation

Using Computers in the Translation of Literary Style Roy Youdale, 2019-06-13 This volume argues for an innovative interdisciplinary approach to the analysis and translation of literary style based on a mutually supportive combination of traditional close reading and distant reading involving corpus linguistic analysis and text visualisation The book contextualizes this approach within the broader story of the development of computer assisted translation including machine translation and the use of CAT tools and elucidates the ways in which the approach can lead to better informed translations than those based on close reading alone This study represents the first systematic attempt to use corpus linguistics and text visualisation in the process of translating individual literary texts as opposed to comparing and analysing already published originals and their translations Using the case study of his translation into English of Uruguayan author Mario Benedetti's 1965 novel Gracías por el Fuego Youdale showcases how a close and distant reading approach CDR enhances the translator's ability to detect and measure a variety of stylistic features ranging from sentence length and structure to lexical richness and repetition both in the source text and in their own draft translation thus assisting them with the task of revision The book reflects on the benefits and limitations of a CDR approach its scalability and broader applicability in translation studies and related disciplines making this key reading for translators postgraduate students and scholars in the fields of literary translation corpus linguistics corpus stylistics and narratology
